

Summary of 2014 AOTULE Summer Student Exchange Programme at Tokyo Tech

- Outline:
  - 3-month (Jun. 2 to Aug. 29) summer exchange research programme
- Participants:
  - 12 graduate students in 2014
- Activities:
  - Research Project in lab (main activity for all students):
    - At host professor's research group in the Tokyo Tech Graduate School of Engineering
  - Course work:
    - "Survival Japanese": Two weeks, morning session with instruction on very basic "Japanese" for those with no prior language knowledge in order to survive on and off-campus
    - "HighTech Japan": One week, four on-site Factory/research facility visits
  - Events:
    - Welcome reception, Tea ceremony, Life Safety Learning Center, RAKUGO live,
  - MISW 2014, Aug.7-8:
    - MISW = Multidisciplinary International Student Workshop at Tokyo Tech, started as a summer school for int'l students in 2008 to become the present format in 2009.
    - Oral presentation of research / Poster to introduce their home institutions
    - Panel Discussion / Group work
  - Certificates (optional)
    - Certificate of the period of enrollment as an International Exchange Student
    - Certificate of Research (based upon evaluation of their activities)
    - Academic Records (score sheet for course works)
- Program Evaluation:
  - Web questionnaire after the programme
  - Good impression, over all
  - Insightful comments and suggestions

Class of 2014

Research activity

MISW
(student workshop)

"Tea ceremony" experience